Footnotes
CROOK'S G MONEY saved ground along the rail in the first turn, advanced at the five-eighths pole, swung out and mounted a three-wide bid leaving the three-eighths pole, was urged on before the eighth pole and kept busy the rest of the way. SAALEM INTENT raced to the early lead and was two wide inside of a challenger in the opening turn, was two wide in the second turn and was game to finish second. GENKENS was eager to run for the early lead and was three wide in the first turn, was clear down the backstretch, had the rail in the second turn while under a drive at the quarter pole and tired. TEXAS CITY THOR was unhurried and three wide in the first turn and failed to get into serious contention. TAURANGA was five wide in the opening turn, settled in and offered a slow advance. DANDELION DUST pursued the leaders three wide in the first turn, stalked but soon tired. SEVERE FLYING was bumped from the outside to contribute to a slow start from the gate, chased after the leaders soon after that to be three wide in the first turn, tired before reaching the final turn. AGREATFATHER got bumped from the inside leaving the gate and veered out, trailed well back at that point and made up no ground.
