Footnotes

SAND DUSTY stumbled out of the gate and was bumped, soon found stride and was pushed to contest the group of leaders, made it two wide in the first turn, came clear entering the second turn and was two wide, shaken up before reaching the three-sixteenth marker, drifted out inside the sixteenth pole and kept under a drive. APRIL EXPECTATIONS was content to let the lead group race on and was two wide in the first turn, was pushed along leaving the half-mile pole, angled in for a rail trip in the second turn, was under a steady drive in the stretch and maintained a rally that earned second at the wire. NAFISS was encouraged to stalk the lead group and had a rail trip, rated nicely through the opening half, came under a drive leaving the quarter pole where three wide but could not match strides late. WALTZ ACROSS TEXAS settled in midpack and was three wide in the opening turn, was four side in the second turn and made a belated rally. HASHA was unhurried and pushed out to be eight wide in the opening turn, checked sharply leaving the quarter pole, forced six wide in the second turn, rallied. KNOCKIN AROUND hopped a bit at the start was unhurried coming out of the gate, three wide in the first turn, was allowed to make an advance nearing the half-mile pole, was four wide in the turn before veering out sharply leaving the quarter pole and faltered. CATAPULT SHOT was eight wide in the first turn and made a slow advance. SPECIAL DURBEE was roused by the rider coming out of the gate, failed to make the lead group and veered a bit heading into the first turn while six wide, was under a ride leaving the quarter pole and failed to make a bid. BIG DRIVE took a prominent spot early and was three wide in the contest for the lead in the opening turn, came under a strong whip leaving the three-eighths pole and tired. IHEARUCALLINGME was prompted to take a spot on the rail in the first turn and contested with the lead group and soon tired. NO PRESSURE was asked for early speed and was caught four wide in the opening turn, dropped back leaving the quarter pole and was out of contention.
