Footnotes

HONOR EVENING settled between horses, moved out after a half, made a sharp move four wide on the turn, maintained a clear lead into midstretch and prevailed after being bumped late. INDYMINE saved ground in midpack, steadied in traffic and split rivals in the two path while gaining on the turn, angled out in midstretch and finished willingly. BATONNAGE raced well back in the six path for most of the way, advanced six wide into the stretch and rallied belatedly. DUBLINER raced six wide throughout and closed some ground late. BIG IRA DAVIS raced up close along the rail, awaited room briefly and gave way on the turn. BOB'S BIG HOPE raced in traffic while splitting horses on the turn and flattened out. PRAIRIE BOY failed to threaten while saving ground. BOBBY TWO PIECES set a pressured pace on rail and tired. BARTLETTS broke in the air at the start, lodged a mild four wide move and flattened out. PAVLOV'S DOG dueled outside and gave way.
