Footnotes

STREET FIGHT given a couple of light taps on the right shoulder and under some light hand urging leaving the starting gate, kicked clear momentarily, had ALPHA ZUMBA draw alongside soon afterwards, and got placed to a firm hold by the pilot, vied for command, unasked for speed until nearing the end of the backstretch, was let out a notch and shook free, entered the stretch and got called upon for much more, felt the second place finisher's presence for a stride or two in midlane, staved off the challenge in short order and edged away. SOKITUMI SAMURAI reserved from off the inside in the early going, tipped into the three path for the start of the run around the far turn, began to pick up the pace leaving the five-sixteenths pole, unleashed a run to loom boldly with a furlong remaining, wasn't able to maintain it and steadily fell back. MATT AND JESSE darted to the rail shortly after the start and rode it around the opening bend, swung off the inside entering the stretch, was under some encouragement making his way on the far turn, entered the stretch and mustered up a mild response to grab the show. ALPHA ZUMBA disputed the pace from the outside until midpoint on the far turn and gave way. TERM LOAN off the inside, was no factor. FRANKY NAILS saved ground, failed to respond when asked to pick it up at the half mile pole.
