Footnotes

MR. BAND TIME tracked the early leaders from the inside, angled out three wide between rivals, battled to the wire and inched away to prove best. EMPIRE HOUSE chased the early leaders three wide, vied in the stretch with strong urging but didn't have enough late and gained the place. SOUTH BY WHO pressed the early pace, gained a short lead in the turn, drifted out some into the stretch and was outfinished. BAD AS BEAN set a pressured early pace and weakened racing off the inside through the stretch. MAGIQUE was unhurried early, split foes at the three sixteenth and placed a mild effort in the stretch. WEST OF TEXAS raced mid pack and lacked a closing effort. FAST ZAC was allowed to settle early racing four wide then faded steadily. BIG DIVOT was fractious at the break to get away well behind the field and was not a factor. ARCTIC SEARCH was outrun and was wide in the stretch. There was a Stewards Inquiry into the break and after reviewing the films it was determined there would be no change.
