Footnotes
SEEKING THE STONE dueled four wide into the turn, vied to edge clear at the quarter pole and was kept to task to the wire. BELLE OF ABO was unhurried early, circled the field in the turn, showed some effort and gained the place. YOUR WILD EMINENCE was well back early, fanned nine wide at the three sixteenths marker, drifted in through the stretch splitting foes and was gaining late. REMEMBER WHEN ROSE was off slow early racing five wide, drifted out mid track to place a brief bid then went evenly late. ROLLINROLLINNDOUGH dueled from between rivals down the backstretch then gave way. IS TIN CON dueled from along the inside, then tired nearing the five sixteenths and faded. GYPSY GAL showed little in a dull effort.
