Footnotes
ABACO threw her head up just as the field was sent off and running, resulting in a slow start, dashed over to the inside and tucked along the rail well before reaching the end of the homestretch, contently rode the rail, was forced to bide time under a good hold from the pilot traversing behind opponents during the later stages of the run around the far turn, slipped into the two path commencing the stretch run, was idled along, found an opening developing between rivals coming to the eighth pole and went for it, brushed with both a weakening JAYEZAA and BELLA BANDITA while splitting them,.accelerated past the runner up in the vicinity of the sixteenth pole and kicked clear. HOLIDAY'S JEWEL took the inside route, vacated the premises coming to the furlong marker, was driven to the front and held it for several strides, got reeled in by the top one with a sixteenth remaining, dug in well to preserve the place. DESPITE HER FORM was a bit hard to settle proceeding her way to the first turn, raced three wide for most of the way around it, remained off the inside thereafter but a bit closer to the rail until the quarter pole, got taken outward for the stretch and settled into the five path by the top of the lane, came out with good energy to outfinish a herd for the show. GEISHA GAL departed the backstretch from the three path, was the last of all to enter the stretch and the widest of all to do so, got straightened away and mustered up a good response en route for the last major check. FLOWER MART mired in the middle amongst rivals for much of the opening six furlongs, lacked the necessary response. BATTLE BRIDGE three wide on the far turn, had no kick. REGAL CITIZEN forwardly placed three wide around each bend, weakened steadily down the stretch, broke down on the clubhouse turn galloping out after crossing the finish line, was examined by the track veterinarian and humanely put down. JAYEZAA tracked the front runners from near the inside, was weakening when brushed by the top one in mid lane. BELLA BANDITA was rated along the outside while attending the pacesetter from the outside until the quarter pole, came up empty after entering the stretch, appeared to be backing away when bumped slightly by the winner in midstretch. HE LOVES ME MORE pulled on the bit while working her way to the lead, tucked along the inside after achieving it, set the splits, with the rider applying rating tactics, was let out after feeling intensified pressure by the quarter pole, held on well from upper to midstretch got overwhelmed leaving the eighth pole and retreated.
