Footnotes

IN HER HEY DAY took over the lead midway down the backstretch, showed the way towards the inside on an uncontested lead then drew off after turning for home. KATIE'S DANCE lightly urged from the gate, kept within striking distance during the opening half, lost contact with the top one heading for the stretch but continued onward well enough for the place. NUMBER ONE CHERRY chased three wide and lacked a solid closing response. DANCE CARD FILLED rode the rail, was taken in hand coming to the five-sixteenths pole after drawing alongside INDIA HERMOSA, cut the corner into the lane under encouragement and flattened out. SOUTHERN SENSATION was no threat. J C'S QUEEN strung out four wide at the half mile, folded. BEAUTIFUL PICO failed to menace. INDIA HERMOSA placed near the two path for the run around the bend, was coaxed along trying to keep pace and gave way after completing a half. MIDNIGHT STUNNER was never involved.
