Footnotes
THE DEFENSE RESTS made the front soon after the start, vied from the inside with CONWAY HILLBILLY, with another perched three wide just off the early activity, shook free of the closest pursuers nearing the quarter pole, was asked for a response and lengthened away to a sizeable advantage, got geared down in the late stages, with the outcome no longer appearing to be in doubt. ORSONIAN angled outward to secure the three path in time for the run around the bend, stalked the front runners from there, proved no match for the top one after entering the stretch. ABOVE PAR four wide departing the backstretch, was gradually guided closer to the inside during the next quarter, sat reserved while well placed for the stretch drive, was tipped outward before commencing to rally in upper stretch, came up empty. SPECIAL ACTION stumbled badly before being bumped by CONWAY HILLBILLY soon afterwards, raced along the outside and was never a threat. SAME OLD WISH off the inside, was put to a prolonged drive to no avail. COLD PRECISION failed to pick up interest leaving the starting gate, despite being on the receiving end of some early attention from the whip on the right shoulder, continued to lag behind even after several right handed shots before reaching the half mile pole, saved ground throughout and improved position past weak and tired ones in the late. CONWAY HILLBILLY came outward making contact with the nearly opponent, moved up willingly into a forward position, disputed the pace from the outside for nearly a half and folded. GRIMMER underwent a four wide pursuit and was through after completing a half.
