Footnotes
EMERALD BEECH placed under a firm hold, contently rode the rail during the opening stages, left the second turn with a clear corridor awaiting, and middle moved down the backstretch to reach contention, was forced to be kept on hold, lacking the best of racing room for a quarter of a mile, commencing from the five-sixteenths pole, found sufficient room to slip through the inside en route to taking over by the eighth pole, dug in with good determination to turn back an equally determined SENADA to preserve the decision. SENADA strung out three wide for most of the way around the first turn, tucked into the two path just prior to the entering the homestretch for the initial time, contently sat near the back of the pack with the rider applying a firm hold on the reins, was still under the same hold, but now placed three wide for the third and final bend, swung six wide into the stretch and took off in earnest, gained ground readily during the ensuing furlong to reach a good striking position, continued to close in steadily to loom boldly with a sixteenth to go, displayed good courage to the end, but came up short, having to settle for place honors in a fine try nonetheless. DYANI off a beat slowly, lagged behind until the quarter pole, turned for home and was let out a notch, bided time just off a wall five deep for the initial portion of the stretch drive, was forced to alter course well to the middle for optimal clearance, closed with good energy belatedly to secure the show. SNOW TOP MOUNTAIN was rated in midpack while placed slightly off the inside, swung into the two path leaving the second turn, steadied when caught behind and amongst rivals early on the third turn, remained stuck behind rivals, losing some position as a result of a shuffle, fanned five wide into the stretch, and came home willingly to garner the final major award. CELTIC CROSS four wide around the final turn, flattened out. MARCIE LEE tracked from the inside and faltered. GOLD D'ORO rated while attending the pace from the outside until the quarter pole, came up empty for the stretch run. DISTORTED PROMISE quickly in control, showed the way well rated along the inside, wilted under pressure after entering the stretch. FREEDOM RINGS underwent a three wide journey, folded.
