SUPERESTRELLA one of four unscathed at the start, moved up willingly and secured the pocket shortly before reaching the opening bend, rated kindly while tracking the front runners, continued along on the same scenario for just over three-quarters, was eased in the direction of the two path leaving the five-sixteenths pole, paused for a couple of strides then completed the job prior to turning for home, responded positively when given his cue, poked a head in front arriving at the eighth pole, edged away under a light hand ride. FACT assumed a forward position soon after an untroubled start, contently prompted the pacesetter, parked in the two path just off that one's hind quarters, crept up to draw even by the midway point on the far turn, went by an energetically handled ACT ONE SCENE ONE, doing so under his own power, had none latched on leading the field into the stretch, got pounced upon by the eventual winner a short way into the stretch run, fell back a sliver with an eighth to go, couldn't stay with the confident top one but held on well for the place. SEATTLE APPEAL was bumped hard from between rivals, one of three affected by the poor-breaking CODE Z, went on to settle into midpack, travelled in the three path around the far turn, came home well enough to secure the show. WAGON TRAIN was taken in hand and pulled out of harm's way after being bumped soundly at the start, took the inside route until coming to the end of the backstretch, getting angled into the two path, came three wide into the stretch under a drive, lacked the needed response. CODE Z broke outward after stumbling at the start, leading to a bumping incident involving himself and the three rivals breaking directly to his right, raced along the outside and made no impact. STREET BALLAD stalked the front runners from the two path, was asked for some run by the five-sixteenths pole, but didn't offer any. SPINNAKER BAY was bumped hard from between rivals at the start, raced from off the inside at or near the rear of the field for the initial half, was in the three path and under urging during the run around the far bend, made no headway on the front runners and tired. ACT ONE SCENE ONE grabbed command early and was sent over towards the inside, showed the way from there, rated until the half mile pole, departed that station under some encouragement, was asked for slightly more a short distance down the road until fully roused once FACT drew alongside at the three-eighths pole, retreated steadily once displaced.
