Footnotes

ROYAL DELTA away in good order, patiently tracked the front runners taking the inside route, kept a watchful eye on them with the rider atop with a firm hold, slipped off the rail in the vicinity of the five-sixteenths pole, in preparation for the stretch drive, angled three wide into the lane and was given her cue, gained readily making her way through the furlong grounds, came in slightly after several right handed shots leaving the three-sixteenths pole, yet forged on ahead, surged by an embattled pair to take charge just as she reached the eighth pole, was in possession of a clear advantage when given a solitary hard right handed shot, lugged inward suddenly and sharply in reaction to it, appeared to scrape the rail twice with the rider applying pressure with the stick, but now near the left shoulder attempting to get back on a truer course, was successful in the end, to complete a decisive score. IT'S TRICKY sat perched three wide around each bend, stalking the pacesetter, was let out a notch leaving the half mile pole and ranged up to increase the pressure, got set down entering the stretch, dueled with PLUM PRETTY on nearly even terms, felt the presence of the winner approaching the eighth pole, bid briefly between rivals when that foe drew alongside, but quickly lost contact, finished willingly to secure second. PINCH PIE tucked along the inside soon after the start, judiciously took the inside route around the opening bend before swung into the two path entering the backstretch, remained off the inside thereafter, was under strong hand encouragement by the five-sixteenths pole, rallied mildly for the show. PLUM PRETTY broke well and quickly grabbed control, took up residence in the two path, showed the way from there, well rated, felt some pressure for the initial time coming to the quarter pole, got let out in response to it, remained a prominent factor for an additional furlong, relinquished at that point and steadily tired thereafter. ST. JOHN'S RIVER raced along the outside and failed to menace. INGLORIOUS strung out three wide until the half mile pole, was under a drive on the far turn, but could make no headway on the front runners.
