Footnotes

RISK MANAGEMENT lost his footing as the field was sent on its way, recovered in short order and assumed a forward position, raced three wide around both turns, moved up steadily towards the front runners upon departing the backstretch, challenged as the widest of a threesome as the third fraction was being set, inched his way to the top and got let out settling into upper stretch, emerged from the furlong grounds holding his biggest advantage, had it steadily cut into by the second place finisher but held on well enough to the end. SUMMER SANDS travelled three wide until the top of the lane, kicked into his best stride coming to the eighth pole, gained ground willingly en route for the place. VELVET CAP chased the rated pacesetter from the two path, had just began to challenge the leader in earnest when the winner make it a three-way tussle nearing the five-sixteenths marker, was being driven from between opponents as the field headed into the stretch, got outfinished. VOLATILE MARKETS devoid of early speed, rode the rail to the end of the backstretch, swung five wide, the widest of all, into the stretch, closed in well to grab the last major check. FAKE DREAMS raced between rivals around the far turn, was already under solid encouragement by the five-sixteenths marker, made no headway. MORE HUNDRED ACRE gained command in the early stages, was rated along the inside while cutting the pace, came under assault from a pair, relinquished shortly afterwards and faltered. GRAHAMANDWITHERS tracked the front runners while loosely-pocket to the five-sixteenths pole, angled outward until in the four path turning for home, had little left to offer and gave way.
