Footnotes

SUPSA set the pace just off the rail while in hand, continued along the inside still under a grip, cut the corner into the lane, came under a drive at the three-sixteenths, edged away while kept to task being wrapped up in the last few strides. CAPS LADY bumped at the start by her inside rival and squeezed lightly from the outside, tracked the pace from the two path around the turn, came under rousing at the quarter pole and rallied readily, safe for the place while unable to cut into the winner's margin. FULL OF INTENT broke out at the start and was corrected after bumping CAPS LADY, was reserved off the pace, came under rousing nearing the head of the lane, swung four wide at the quarter pole, bid mildly through the final furlong for show honors. CAROLINES STARLITE saved ground until the quarter pole, came under a drive near the five-sixteenths, swung out four wide at the head of the lane, bid mildly passed tired rivals. KING OF THE DISCO chased the pace three wide, was asked at the quarter pole for more, offered no response. SUNSET SALLY hustled from the gate, chased the pace throughout while steadily backing out, offered no kick. MY VIVA LOCA broke well, was taken in hand shortly thereafter down the backside when in tight quarters and trailed.
