Footnotes

NOW AND THEN sat patiently parked in the two path off BLUEGRASS SPRINGS for the opening quarter, ranged up to increase his presence after setting foot on the turn, poked a head down in front as the twosome turned for home, edged away when put to hand encouragement, then remained in the clear, kept to the same hand urging to the end. BEDOUIN NOW raced from between rivals on the turn, was kept on hold, forced to idle behind the front runners approaching the quarter pole, had sufficient clearance a sixteenth down the road, kicked in with good energy to secure second. CHAMPION BOY came away last, dashed over to the rail and rode it for a half, angled outward for the stretch drive, lacked a solid closing punch. BLUEGRASS SPRINGS along the inside, argued for control with the winner, at first under some light hand urging, then while being asked for much more by the five-sixteenths pole, fell back by a sliver coming to the quarter pole, remained prominently placed for another furlong before backing away. MR BEAUREGARD bumped several times with REGULAR BUSINESS in rapid succession at the start, underwent a three wide pursuit and gave way. REGULAR BUSINESS exchanged a series of bumps with MR BEAUREGARD as the field was sent off and running, tucked along the inside nearing the end of the backstretch, stayed there until the vicinity of the five-sixteenths marker, got angled outward at the station, wound up four wide by the top of the lane, had no offering to give.
