Footnotes

LOTS OF STONES moved up down the backstretch to contest the pace, edged away to a clear advantage approaching the quarter pole, with the rider still sitting on hold, spurted off to comfortable margin during the ensuing furlong once given her cue and safely turned back a late bid from the runner up. BWANA BABE easily out broke the field to grab the early lead, worked her way to the rail by the half mild pole while being joined by the top one, vied with that opponent for control, was urged along to keep pace but lost contact with the more confidently-handled rival nonetheless, then staged a solid comeback leaving the furlong grounds en route for the place. SPINA rank being rated during the early stages, raced off the inside and proved no match for the top twosome after turning for home. KARAKORUM FUGITIVE saved ground throughout and lacked a rally. MERIDIAN MAMA underwent a three wide pursuit and tired.
