Footnotes

RAIN FOREST contently tracked the front runners while sitting the pocket trip, picked up interest coming to the end of the bend, had clear sailing available cutting the corner into the stretch to launch her bid, did so, vied for the lead as innermost member of a group totaling three during the ensuing furlong, shook them off, then continued onward in a willingly manner to stay safely in front. BLOSSOM'S TRAIL gave chase primarily from the two path on the turn, swung four wide into the stretch, was quickly straightened away and closed in with good courage to garner the place, then was reported to have bled. JUST DO IT PLEASE was grabbed hold after ducking inward coming out of the starting gate, dropped back and remained well isolated from the others to the head of the stretch, underwent a ground-saving journey, displayed good late energy while taking the show award. FIRST PENNY dueled for command from the two path, with the eventual winner keeping watch along the unprotected rail route, had the top one move up coming to the quarter pole, yielded while being forced to fight from between rivals from upper stretch to mid lane, weakened steadily in the final furlong. SHE'S GOSPEL assumed a prominent position right from the get-go, contested the pace from the three path, with FIRST PENNY being the nemesis, continued the battle as the widest of three during the initial portion of the stretch drive, then backed away. EXCLUSIVE SARAH departed the backstretch three wide, chased the ongoing pace dispute from there, got set down in the vicinity of the five-sixteenths pole, gave way.
