Footnotes
STRIKER BEAN was allowed to settle early, vied in the turn, altered outward near the quarter pole, split foes into the stretch and edged clear. SOME KIND OF LUCK was off slow early racing off the rail, sustained a bid to gain ground into the turn splitting foes, angled out six wide at the top of the stretch and closed late. CRAFTY SHEIK chased the early leader racing four wide, gained the advantage down the backstretch, was challenged in deep stretch by closing rivals and outfinished. PHANTOM GULCH was unhurried early, placed a mild bid then went evenly in the stretch. LANE'S HUNT was within striking distance early and lacked a late response. COMIC TALK drew quickly clear into the first turn, was finished early and faded. VAL WENT SWINGING was outrun and failed to threaten. CITY CLASS was forwardly placed early racing four wide then retreated steadily.
