Footnotes

TINA'S NOTE underwent a four wide pursuit, responded positively when given her cue for the stretch, gobbled up real estate in chunks making her way through the furlong grounds, drew even with the runner up in the vicinity of the sixteenth pole, grabbed a slim advantage soon afterwards, then showed good determination to preserve it. ROCKY FIELD sat forwardly placed from off the inside, tucked along the rail shortly after entering the turn, got asked for some run by the five-sixteenths pole, felt the crack of the whip right handed prior to cutting the corner into the stretch, scurried past those who had chosen wider routes for the opening half to become the new leader by the eighth pole, had the top one close in and draw on even terms a sixteenth later, yielded reluctantly. HOOKED ON YOU pressed the issue three wide and got outfinished. SIGNORA SOFIA along the inside, was roused by the five-sixteenths marker, went on to improve position. BAAL PERAZIM made solid contact with ONE OR THE OTHER at the start, shook it off and took early command, was coaxed along kept at a slight distance from off the rail being pursued by another pair, relinquished before arriving at the furlong marker and backed away. JUPITER MOON placed in the two path, prompted the pacesetter for nearly a half and gave way. ONE OR THE OTHER got bumped at the start, raced along the outside, was already under strong handling by the end of the backstretch, spun into the stretch, had nothing to offer. CANINANN saved ground, was asked early for some run, failed to menace.
