Footnotes

STONELY THE LONELY along the outside, raced as a team with the runner up, gave chase on the loose leader during the run around the bend, doing so under a prolonged drive, turned for home and gained ground rapidly, took over a a short distance away from the eighth pole, began to drift outward noticeably, was given a bit of a scare by a D J'S HOPE, but safely fended that opponent off. D J'S HOPE took the inside route while in pursuit on the pacesetter, raced heads apart with the top one, being asked for run all the while, was given a hard tug on the right rein shortly after entering the stretch, displayed some green ness coming outward towards the middle of the strip in the furlong grounds in two stages, with the rider applying a series of rapidly successive shots left handed in the area of the shoulder afterwards, had the corrective action take affect and closed in with good energy en route for the place. HORATIO spurted away to his lonesome self in the early going, cut the pace saving ground, with the two closest chasers having already been committed to encouragement upon reaching the turn, had that pair begin to close the gap prior to reaching the quarter pole and got called upon, got run down by both, yet remained well clear of the others for the show award. MY TEDDY BEAR bobbled at the break, departed the backstretch from the three path, tired. INFILTRATOR raced along the outside and gave way. KATMANSTU off the rail, was no factor. PROMETHEUS CROWN put to urging before getting angled off the inside route coming to the quarter pole, offered little.
