Footnotes

REDDING COLLIERY skittish in the gate, was backed out and re loaded, came away with no apparent mishap, sat entrenched in the two path heading into the first turn and remained there before being easing over to the inside early down the backstretch, remained loosely pressed for nearly three-quarters, felt the runner up's presence at the five-sixteenths pole and was soon asked for some run, raced on even terms for the next quarter pole, then kicked away under good handling. I WANT REVENGE was strung out three wide by the winner around the opening bend, settled into two path soon after entering the backstretch only to drift back to being three wide for several strides nearing the half mile pole, ranged up to test the top one at the five-sixteenths pole, battled on nearly even terms until upper stretch, fell back thereafter, while intermittently drifting outward from left handed stick work. JIMANATOR raced along the outside, was asked for run after going three-quarters, proved no match. HEART BUTTE saved ground, came up empty when roused at the five-sixteenths pole. THUNDER BALL off the inside, trailed.
