Footnotes

TAX RETURN took up a forward position soon after the start, left the backstretch from the four path in pursuit of the leader, was set down to a hard drive coming to the quarter pole, wrested away the lead then hen dug in with good determination to preserve the decision. TIMOTHY'S BOY broke on top, vied for the lead three wide, succumbed to the top one's pressure but continued on to be second best. FIREBAY ducked outward at the break, continued to drift out a few more paths early down the backstretch, settled into proper stride by the half mile pole, picked up the pace nearing the end of the turn, unleashed a rail rally, hesitated for a jump or two before moving past another rival in the vicinity of the furlong marker, then kicked in with good energy to secure the show. TANNERY TOWN argued for control from the two path, weakened after turning for home. LUCKY LIL LIAM got bumped at the start, raced towards the inside, was asked for run at the three-eighths pole, failed to respond appreciably. SLYTOPIA tucked over to the inside at the seven-sixteenths pole, was soon put to a drive, kept pace with the front runners until upper stretch before flattening out. BARNARDS GALAXY bumped at the break, failed to menace. HAVING A NICE TIME swung three wide into the stretch, had no rally. TUESDAY'S CAT off the inside, was through after completing a half. STANLEY

KOWALSKY bumped at the start, had a wide trip and was outrun. FORTY ROCK outrun for a half, angled to be four wide at the head of the stretch, had no offering to render. CONSTANT AIM raced four wide, folded.
