Footnotes
POWER OF TITUS always within striking distance, rallied four wide on the second turn, sustained his rally to make the lead in mid stretch under brisk handling and drew off under a strong hand ride. ROMEO AGAIN also close up from the start, rallied three wide into the stretch, made the lead then could not handle the winner. TAXES FOR BEN had speed from the start along the rail, was taken out a bit near the half mile pole, moved up to make the lead briefly near the quarter pole, remained a sharp threat until deep stretch then weakened. PERFECT START bore out at the start, sprinted to a daylight lead on the first turn, set the pace for six furlongs, battled until the eighth pole then gave way. CHARLES ANTHONY also broke outward then trailed. LUCKY DRAGON was through after a half.
