Footnotes
YOU BETTER BELIEVE settled just off the leaders in the four path while patiently handled, responded when set down on the second turn, made the lead nearing the quarter pole then edged clear late under strong handling. NEW YORK STYLE had speed from the start along the rail, was boxed in on the second turn, angled out entering the stretch then had a mild late rally. B SHARP set a pressured pace in the two path into the second turn, dropped along the rail, remained a sharp threat once headed by the winner but was outfinished. GENERAL LAFAYETTE found his best stride too late. COCKADOODLE prompted the pace in the three path until the top of the stretch then faded. MAMAS ICECREAM MAN failed to menace.
