Footnotes

MT. FUGI outrun early, responded readily when set down entering the second turn, split horses nearing the quarter pole, dug in late despite a stretch long drive and was along in time. MUFASA CAT was hustled from the gate to set the pace around the first turn, gave up the lead between horses before a half, regained command before the second turn, dropped along the rail and drew clear then could not handle the winner late. PAYING THE BILL trailed around the first turn, was outrun for five furlongs then closed a gap late. VALENTINUS settled mid pack while racing outside, offered a bid on the second turn then came up empty. FIRE AT WILL was well placed while between horses but lacked a closing response. SINFUL VOWS was a sharp threat three wide for six furlongs then faded. STEVE N ALEX never far back, moved up steadily along the inside into the second turn, angled out three wide while offering a bid then weakened once in the stretch. MOUNT BREVETOR was outrun. BOOM RUN was no threat. ROB N JEFF was through after a half. JAZZY JAKE prompted the pace along the rail around the first turn, made the lead before a half, had speed for five eighths then gave way.
