Footnotes

SUNNYBROOK was placed under a firm hold assuming the role of stalker down the backstretch, continued to patiently play that part from the two path until nearing the quarter pole, went after the pacesetter in earnest turning for home, was driven to a clear advantage by the eighth pole, then was kept to the task at hand, reaching the finish line in time to stave off the fast-closing runner up. BELLE MUSE sat reserved off the inside for nearly the entire opening half, spun four wide into the stretch, under encouragement, charged down the middle of the strip with powerful strides but ran out of ground. CATREIGN was guided over to the inside coming to the half mile, showed the way while being pressed by the top one all the while, felt intense pressure from that opponent heading for the quarter pole, failed to keep pace, yielding the lead before reaching the eighth pole and steadily weakened thereafter. FLEEING FAST was kept in reserve while taking the inside route, steadied off heels when SHAKER LAKES crossed over in the front in the vicinity of three-eighths pole, losing some momentum as a result, got going again, angled outward approaching the five-sixteenths pole, but lacked the needed response after entering the stretch. SHAKER LAKES ducked to the inside coming to the three-eighths pole and tired. CHAKA BWANA was urged along chasing three wide and folded after going a half. SHAHZADI saved ground and faded. HERE'S THE BEAUTY displayed brief foot and was eased heading into the stretch.
