Footnotes

SUMMER SANDS raced from off the inside throughout, entered the far turn four wide and was about as wide exiting it, closed in readily from upper to midstretch to loom boldly at that stage, went past LIFE'S A ROAR to gain a slim advantage, then dug in well enough to preserve the decision. VOLATILE MARKETS was brushed at the start, got eased off the inside route shortly after entering the backstretch, took the three path for a good portion of the way around the second bend having been asked for some run by the half mile pole, fanned outward until five wide at the top of the lane, displayed a good kick down the center of the strip, dueled late with the winner but fell short. LIFE'S A ROAR disputed the pace from the two path, unasked for his best until the drive home, relinquished to the winner a few strides past the eighth pole, weakened into the show slot. VELVET CAP near the inside, vied for command to the furlong grounds before faltering. SHOUTOUT lunged at the start, travelled three wide on the first turn and one path on the next one, had no rally. SUNRISE LOVER brushed at the start, saved ground and tired. CLOSINGTOWEWIRE had the rider momentarily lose balance after getting away awkwardly, was placed along the overland route for six furlongs while being outrun.
