GUYANA STAR away awkwardly, got saddled with a three length deficit in the very initial stages, was put to some hand encouragement soon afterwards, started to pick up the pace coming to the half mile pole, chased the team of front runners from the two path on the turn, swung one path wider into the stretch, found her best stride completing the run through the furlong grounds, caught up to RAIN FOREST past the sixteenth pole, took over then dug in well enough to fend off the belated bid coming from C C'S PRIDE. C C'S PRIDE towards the inside for most of the way down the backstretch, chose the two path as the one to take racing the bend, fanned five wide, the widest of all, into the stretch, charged home with strong late foot, but fell short. RAIN FOREST sparred on even terms with ANOTHER PAGE travelling in the two path, was almost at the three-sixteenths pole before getting asked for run, got reeled by the top twosome in the final seventy yards. ANOTHER PAGE dueled for command while saving ground, got roused prior to the quarter pole, put up a fight to past the eighth pole then weakened. ROCK SHOW three wide on the turn, tired.
