Footnotes
PAMPERED PRINCESS went up early to contest the pace while dueling outside of ALL SAINT'S EVE, gained a slight edge, moved well clear on the far turn, angled nearer the inside, then was kept to her task in the drive. AUSTIN'S MOM, fractious in the gate prior to the start, was never far back, followed the winner five wide into the stretch, made a bold bid to gain near even terms at the eighth pole but couldn't sustain the needed acceleration while superior to the rest. PRADO'S LASS, ridden early to gain a forward position while maneuvering in to race four wide, stalked the pace into the final furlong and came up empty. LE COSAIRE, unruly in the gate prior to the break, was empty in the drive. GOOD TALK hopped at the start, raced near the inside to the lane, came out a bit but failed to offer a serious late threat. ALL SAINT'S EVE contested the pace inside the winner until nearing the stretch and faltered. SUNDAY DINNER, well placed off the inside for six furlongs, weakened thereafter. KAYS WAY tired approaching the stretch. SEEK was never close. SHESA STRODES LADY was outrun always. KAY'S DAUGHTER never was prominent.
