Footnotes

DEVILISH SPIRIT was urged from the starting gate to take charge, was put to a firm hold, coming to the the nine-sixteenths pole, after having established control, carved the pace towards the inside, loosely-contested and still under a firm hold until the quarter pole, was roused after reaching the top of the lane, then turned back the runner up while being kept busy. WE NEED V L T'S chased the winner almost from the get-go and dug in well throughout the stretch drive to preserve place honors. MISS DOLAN'S ROSE bumped with MISSISSIPPI TOO after bobbling at the break, was taken over and settled along the rail soon afterwards, took the inside route around the turn, was forced to angle outward for optimal racing clearance, once SONG OF BROADWAY took up residence along the rail, approaching the three-sixteenths pole, then got outkicked. SONG OF BROADWAY lunged at the start, was taken hold and pulled off LOYAL SHADOW before contact could be made, sat within range along the outside, ducked in at the quarter pole for the stretch drive, but lacked the needed response. ROGUE'S JEWEL broke outward a bit at the start, angled three wide into the stretch under a drive, and rallied mildly to improve position. MISSISSIPPI TOO was bumped at the start, took up chase three wide around the turn, being coaxed along to keep pace, weakened steadily after completing a half. LOYAL SHADOW was no factor. MESA GIRL trailed throughout.
