Footnotes

BLACK MARKET MONEY gave chase from the outside, ducked over to the inside coming to the five-sixteenths pole, rode the rail for a furlong, altered course back to the outside, zoomed by the front runners and edged away under good handling. DIGITAL JOE departed the backstretch from the three path, closed in on the leader to get within a good striking distance by the quarter pole, maintained the momentum after turning for home, was just off UP ABOVE's hind quarters as that rival was clipped behind by BRUNELLI, had no answer when the winner arrived on the scene soon afterwards, but continued on willingly to garner the place. UP ABOVE quickly grabbed the front, showed the way from the inside on a loosely-contested lead, came under intensified pressure during the initial portion of the stretch run, got clipped behind by BRUNELLI in midstretch,weakened steadily thereafter into the show slot. KELTIC FIGHTER underwent a three wide pursuit, entered the stretch and was set down, drifted out slightly in upper stretch unintentionally coming into the path of the oncoming MARQUET DANCER, got clipped from behind, continued onward to take the final major check. TOMMY KARAKORUM coaxed along the outside chasing the pacesetter, gave way. OUT OF YOUR MIND taken to the rail at the half mile pole, tired. GETINITALLTOGETHER outrun for the opening half, was checked sharply in reaction to the fallen rival at the furlong marker. BRUNELLI saved ground, ran up into tight quarters approaching the eighth pole, clipped heels with the leader, bobbling and losing the rider as a result. MARQUET DANCER swung four wide into upper stretch, was in the midst of his stretch run when KELTIC FIGHTER crossed over in front in upper stretch, clipped that rival's heels, stumbled and lost the rider as a result. There was a Stewards' Inquiry focusing on the both incidents in the stretch, with DIGITAL JOE being the object of attention for the one in midstretch, before the result was declared official.
