Footnotes
DASHTIME was never far off the pace, moved up to challenge four across on the turn, dueled to deep stretch and inched away to prove best. JUST FOR JAMI pressed the pace in hand, fell back on the turn, angled in, bid inside, dueled to deep stretch but couldn't match strides with the winner. NICCOLO'S DANCER set a pressured pace to mid stretch, weakened but held for show. MODERN GENTLEMAN broke awkwardly, raced close to the pace, challenged three wide between horses on the turn but came up empty. SAN GIUSEPPE saved ground, bid along the rail on the second turn but had nothing left for the drive. AWESTRIKE was not a factor.
