Footnotes

HARDSHELL lightly hand urged leaving the starting gate, cleared the field and was taken over to the rail, rated well, while showing the way on a loosely-contested lead, felt some pressure from the runner up during the run around the far turn, got set down leaving the quarter pole and shook free the final furlong. SECRET GETAWAY three wide around the first turn, went on to prompt the winner from the two path, attempted to increase the pressure departing the backstretch, never made it past the top one's hind quarters, and had to settle for the place. SMALL TOWN chased futilely for almost a half, proved no match. SEA GAZE three wide on the second turn, tired. FRENCH TRANSITION was through after going a half. THUNDERING ROAR came four wide into the lane, was outrun. AFTER SHOCK failed to menace. THE BRAVEHEART saved ground and wilted.
