Footnotes
JOE'S CANNON vied two across past the eighth pole and drew off under urging. KING JUSTIN vied inside past the eighth pole but was no match for the winner. RENEGADE CIELO lagged early, bid along the rail on the turn, was along for show while no threat to the top two but clearly best of the rest. AFFIRMIA raced in the second flight three across, went five wide leaving the turn and hung in the lane. DARL'S GEM bobbled a bit at the start, raced close to the pace inside but lacked a stretch bid. DUKE DELUXE trailed the field, went six wide at the top of the stretch but had no stretch response. NATTERING was never far off the pace while racing between horses and gave way in the upper stretch.
