Footnotes
A ROYAL TIZZY broke sharply, set the pace, drew off on the turn for a clear lead and held well under urging. WARONTHEHOMEFRONT was crowded at the start, went five wide leaving the turn, closed steadily and was gaining late. LEE CREEK was crowded at the start, was void of early speed, rallied around the turn, bid seven wide and finished well to earn show. TAPADERO raced in the back and improved position in a steady effort. IRISH CORAL pressed the pace inside, eased out for the drive, had little left and faded through the stretch. GHOST RIDE raced mid pack, bid inside on the turn and came up empty. GIBSON HOME RUN broke out and bumped at the start, pressed the pace to the turn and stopped.
