Footnotes
MAME'S FLAME was well placed, angled in at the top of the lane, bid willingly, assumed command past the eighth pole and drew clear. DOUBLE CHOCOLATE was away alertly, vied inside, came in while dueling in the stretch, exchanged bumps with AGENT SCULLY and was outclosed to finish second best. KOCHEN BEKI saved ground mid pack, eased out for drive, closed well and got up late for show. AGENT SCULLY raced three across for a half, vied past the eighth pole, bumped while dueling, yielded and was caught for show. ACARPIAN was unhurried early, raced outside, lacked a bid and failed to menace. STELLA'S LIONHEART broke out, vied two wide between horses and was through after a half. HANA failed to threaten in an even effort. Following a stewards inquiry, DOUBLE CHOCOLATE was disqualified and placed fourth for causing interference in the stretch drive.
