Footnotes

REREADTHEFOOTNOTES away in good order, found himself on an uncontested lead, bounded along taking the inside route during the run around the bend, headed for the lane while still not being asked for his best, extended his edge after being put to mild encouragement, left the furlong grounds still well in control, had the rider take a couple of peeks back for any potential challengers, and after rightfully determining none in sight, cruised home to the wire under light hand encouragement. SMOKIN HERO sped towards the front after leaving the starting gate, despite bobbling at the break, was taken back soon afterwards, moved out to the two path, stalked the leader while attempting to resist the rating tactics being applied by the rider, was asked for run at the five-sixteenths pole, couldn't make up ground on the confidently-ridden winner, but held on willingly to procure the place. MOR CHANCES raced three wide, was put to encouragement on the turn, but failed to gain any ground. SEE MORE SPIRIT outrun for a half, outfinished weak ones in the lane. MR. WINDJAMMER saved ground until the three-sixteenths pole and tired. CITIFEST kept off the inside, was no threat.
