Footnotes

PAPA'S NICE CAT vied for the lead from the outside, went by the early pacesetter midway on the turn, with ELLIPSE in tow directly to the outside, turned for home, was given his cue and shook free, emerged from the furlong grounds holding his biggest advantage, began to shorten stride noticeably a sixteenth down the road, reached the wire in time to prevail. GREELEY'S LAW unhurried in the opening stages, commenced a three wide run from the five-sixteenths pole, gained little ground on the leader during the initial portion of the stretch drive, picked it more readily once the top one began to show some effects from his earlier exertions, made things a bit interesting at the end, en route for second honors. MR. POPPS gave chase from off the inside, entered the stretch under a drive, got out finished in late stages by the first two place finishers. ELLIPSE underwent a three wide pursuit and flattened out. MYRLANSKI off to a sluggish beginning, was already under a drive turning for home, failed to reach a contending position. ZEPPE saved ground to no avail. EL CORRIENTE off the inside, was through after going a half. SHOUTOUT was never in contention. WAR COLONY bumped by an errant RY BREAK at the break, was outrun. RY BREAD broke out slightly, but enough to initiate contact with WAS COLONY, was lightly coaxed to grab a forward position, offered no resistance when confronted by others midpoint on the turn and retreated.
