Footnotes

STATELY CAT showed the way from the inside, put away RUMACK, the only the rival to have applied any pressure at any time, and drew off under a light drive. FALL INTO FAITH darted to the inside, saved ground until the stretch, was already under solid encouragement by the five-sixteenths pole, rallied to get the place. RUMACK chased the winner from the outside, doing so while being asked for run nearly halfway around the far turn, tired. PEGASUS SAPHIRE off the inside, was never a menace. WILDICHI primarily four wide for the opening three-quarters, folded. CANINANN saved ground until upper stretch while being outrun. ONE OR THE OTHER raced along the outside, lost his action leaving the midway point on the second turn, entered the stretch put to a protective hold and was eased. LUCIA'S DREAM three wide on both turns, was through before completing six furlongs, got eased shortly after entering the lane.
