Footnotes
AWESOME RHYTHM, in touch throughout, closed four-wide then bid five-wide late turn, was headed upper stretch but rallied getting by a sixteenth out then finished under light handling. COLONEL RUTLEDGE, always in range, was hustled four-wide early on the far turn, bid midturn, dueled but was headed upper stretch then finished determinedly. HIS GREATNESS showed brief speed, was headed on the first turn and stalked the new pacesetter, bid between foes midway of the final turn, dueled and gained command upper stretch but gave way grudgingly a sixteenth out. BEAR'S ROCKET, in touch, bid three-deep midway of the final turn, dueled, was headed upper stretch and gave way in the final furlong. BEAR'S PROSPECTOR moved a bit wide into the first turn bit surged to the lead midway of that turn, set a reserved pace, was engaged and vied from midway of the far turn then tired in the stretch. PARABOLA, in touch early, was hustled along the rail and second path late on the far turn then lacked a stretch response.
