Footnotes

JANUARY GENT was reserved along the backstretch, angled three wide to launch his bid at the quarter pole, charged to the front in upper stretch and drew away under mild encouragement. GIANT RYAN was unhurried early, swung four wide at the quarter pole and finished willingly for the place. GOLD VENDETTA broke a bit slowly, raced well back inside, made a good run along the rail to reach contention in upper stretch and was outfinished for the place. BRECCIATE trailed for a half and lacked a strong closing bid. AL'S LARK checked in traffic between horses on the turn, altered course five wide and lacked a late response. WICKED CLIMB pressed the pace from outside for a half and tired. KING DAVID J dueled on the rail for a half and tired.
