Footnotes

HEWITTS out broke the competition and had the lead in a flash, lulled the quartet behind, laying down a moderate opening half, shook off tepid pressure from the two closest pursuers coming to the five-sixteenths pole, re established a comfortable advantage once let out in upper stretch, then held safely to the finish line. RODMAN contently tracked the leader towards the inside for nearly a half, launched a rail rally from the head of the stretch to garner place honors. SHOPTATE underwent a three wide pursuit, failed to apply any serious pressure on the top one when asked for a response approaching the five-sixteenths pole, but mustered up enough to salvage the show. AL'S LARK was grabbed hold soon after the start, and assumed the role of stalker, bid briefly for command leaving the three-eighths pole, got rebuffed and outkicked from that point. MORE THAN A REASON placed four wide at the five-sixteenths pole, was urged but made no gain.
