Footnotes

YO KARAKORUM off to an alert beginning, needed only a few strides out of the gate to establish command, was rated towards the two path while setting a moderate pace during the opening half, responded well when let out a notch coming to the three-sixteenths pole, then reached the wire in time to preserve the decision. WE NEED V L T'S was hung out in the overland route departing the backstretch, was coaxed keeping within range of the loosely-pressed leader, lost some ground and momentum, being the widest of all swinging into the lane, got going again a sixteenth down the road and finished well, only to run out of real estate. SEZZANA chased the front runner four wide around the turn, was asked for a response coming to the five-sixteenths pole, simultaneously with the runner up, closed well, but had to settle for the show. MISS DOLAN'S ROSE saved ground throughout, showed a good spurt of energy leaving the three-eighths pole to narrow the gap a bit from the top one, nearly reached that one's hind quarters cutting the corner into the lane, but could not sustain the bid. DIVI DIVI raced along the outside and failed to menace. CITIFIESTA accompanied the pacesetter three wide for a half before backing off.
