Footnotes

WILA WEST was prominent early between horses, raced forwardly, drew clear late turn and widened under a strong hand ride. LANGANO raced off the pace and was three-wide through both turns, was roused midway of the far turn then finished gamely to no avail. BAISER D'AMOUR was checked up front between rivals midway through the first turn, settled and stalked between foes, was asked for run early on the far turn then hung in the stretch. SMOKEY DIAMOND settled early on the backstretch, remained unhurried to late turn then rallied determinedly but was unable to make up necessary ground. MISS ICICLE closed up outside rivals early backstretch and bid outside two others, dueled on the far turn then was no match at the top of the stretch and tired. MISS COSTELLO stalked the pace, bid between foes on the backstretch, dueled through the far turn then was no match at the top of the stretch and tired. LADY CHRISTINE was prominent early on the rail but dropped back and stalked the pace then tired on the far turn. THERE WAS A CLAIM OF FOUL BY THE RIDER ON BAISER D'AMOUR AGAINST WILA WEST FOR INTERFERENCE IN THE FIRST TURN AS WELL AS A STEWARDS' INQUIRY INTO THE RUN THROUGH THE TURN. AFTER REVIEWING THE TAPES THERE WAS NO CHANGE IN THE ORDER OF FINISH.
