Footnotes

CAN IHAVETHISDANCE stalked the pace to the far turn, bid outside MARIA CLARISSA, took a short lead, shook clear upper stretch then held under steady left-hand encouragement through the final furlong. KABUL stalked the pace, launched her drive at the top of the stretch, gained steadily between foes and just missed at the wire. JULIET'S KISS, always in touch, closed four-wide late turn, responded smartly at the top of the stretch, rallied gamely but failed to get up in time. MONA ROSE, in touch early, closed four-wide into the far turn, was hustled along but failed to reach the fore then hung in the stretch. MARIA CLARISSA led quickly, set a reserved pace, was engaged early on the far turn, dueled gamely to the top of the stretch and tired. MITY DANCER (GER) was taken in hand at the start, began to close along the rail late on the backstretch but was outrun on the turn.
