Footnotes

KENTUCKY PIE three wide, contested the pace as the widest of a threesome, with the rider applying a firm hold for much of the opening half, ranged up and went at it on nearly terms with BOLD AND READY once the innermost member of the dispute backed away, this occurring in the vicinity of the half mile pole, battled while racing close to the three path on the far turn, forged to the lead, drew off to a comfortable advantage making his way through the furlong grounds, held on to it, kept to the task at hand. SINISTRA tracked the pace fight in the opening stages, doing so from a slight distance from off the rail, got tipped outward once MY WAY OR DUBAIWAY was in full retreat, entered the stretch and was outfinished. CASHLEIGH unhurried early, swung three wide into the stretch, had no rally. BOLD AND READY disputed the pace from between rivals until the end of the backstretch, dueled with the winner for the next quarter before faltering. MY WAY OR DUBAIWAY along the inside, argued for command with another pair for a half then gave way. PRIMAL GOLD saved ground while trailing.
