Footnotes

MAYBERRY MADNESS grabbed a narrow advantage and was quickly guided over to the rail, shook off CORYBANT during the later stages of the run around the bend, was past the quarter pole when put to encouragement, drew off, kept to hand urging to the end. RAP D'ORO gave chase mostly two wide on the turn, rallied for the place. PATRIOTIC DUTY put to a drive while pursuing the winner from the two path, got outfinished. G W'S HAMMER stumbled after hesitating as the gate was sprung open, having tossed his head to the side, raced two wide on the turn, swung one path wider into the stretch and was given his cue, responded positively, altered course more to the middle of the strip at the furlong marker, rallied belatedly for the last major check. PEGASUS RED raced near the back of the pack for almost a half, fanned six wide during the opening phases of the stretch drive, mustered up a mild response.

EVERYDOGHASHISDAY three to four wide on the bend, launched no serious moves. KELTIC FIGHTER three wide, was under the whip by the five-sixteenths pole, gave way. DOC CEBU had no rally. CANDY RAIDER swung four wide into the stretch, fanned out several paths soon afterwards, made no impact. CORYBANT pressed the issue from the two path and gave way. GINGER'S JOE rode the rail, cut the corner under a drive, tired. ONE SMOKIN CAT offered little.
