Footnotes

BULLDOG ON A BONE settled near the back of the pack after the start, was steadied and maneuvered around the fallen rider shortly before entering the backstretch, advanced steadily into contention while racing towards the rail down the backstretch, arrived at the half mile pole with sufficient clearance for the asking and scooted up to become the primary pursuer on the far turn, kept pace with the runner up, was angled outward leaving the five-sixteenths marker until three wide turning for home, got hooked up a prolonged duel with ALPHA ZUMBA, gained a slim advantage with about an eighth to go, then dug in with good determination to preserve it against a courageous foe. ALPHA ZUMBA was stacked five wide heading for and racing around the opening bend, brushed with SHOUTOUT as the incident was occurring prior to spinning into the backstretch, was carried several paths to the outside by the rider less rival, worked his way to be two wide by the half mile pole, showed the way, being pressed by the eventual winner, himself taking the inside route, raced down the lane in a spirited tussle with the top one, fell back by a sliver, battled onward with good courage but had to settle for the place. KEVIN SILVERLASPIA was bumped lightly at the break, raced three wide on the first turn and was well off the rail throughout, came five wide into the stretch and rallied for the show. WILDHAASSEE strung out three wide and in tight between rivals, appeared to clip another's heels just before the initial split was being recorded, remained a forward factor from the outside for about three-quarters and tired. SHOUTOUT four wide and in tight between rivals, brushed with the second place finisher then got taken in hand after the incident late on the first turn, gave way. TONINTHIRTEEN was bumped lightly at the start, raced four wide on the first turn and three wide on the next one, was momentarily grabbed hold by the pilot after FRANLYU NMAILS lost his rider, tired. WINTER NOW bumped from between foes at the start, raced from off the inside and was no factor. SEARCH ENGINE along the rail, was pressed by four others proceeding in the direction of and travelling around the opening bend, continued to vie for the lead at or just off the inside until the end of the backstretch before backing away. FRANKY NAILS in the two path and amongst the middle members of a line of five horses with little space between them, had just worked his way to the front when he appeared to get clipped from behind, stumbled and lost the rider, then after being apprehended by the out rider was subsequently vanned off. There was a Stewards' Inquiry focusing on the occurrence on the first turn before the result was declared official.
