Footnotes
FLIER MONEY was three wide near the half-mile marker then dueled for the lead to deep stretch and edged clear in the closing strides. PRARIE FALCON broke a bit awkwardly and was bumped at the start, moved quickly down the backstretch to reach the leaders after the opening quarter, dueled with the winner to deep stretch and held on well. FIRMLY ORIENTED moved to the rail after the start, angled out nearing the stretch then lacked a solid bid. COACH PETE was never far back, took the three path into the stretch then lacked a bid. IRONSIDES raced inside to the stretch, eased out to the three path then weakened. PATRIZIO lunged out at the start to be away behind the field and was never a factor. BOLD ESSENCE was four wide on the turn and seven wide into the stretch and tired. RUM AND EARL flashed brief speed during the opening quarter but was through before a half and stopped in the stretch.
