Footnotes

LEMON FEVER chased the early leader five wide, placed a bid to inch away in the second turn, then drew clear in the stretch and just lasted. SUMMER SURPRISE was outrun early racing off the rail, circled the field in the second turn, closed with a rush late and just missed. LUNAR LOVEGAL was allowed to settle early, rallied six wide into the second turn and gained the show. MYROSAPOZZI was pinched back at the start, then moved up between foes early, sustained a bid to be within striking in the second turn, then floated out in the stretch late. FREE RANGE was unhurried along the inside saving ground, vied in the stretch then gave way nearing the wire. ANGRY BIRD broke outward at the break pinching MYROSAPOZZI, was steadied then moved up to set the pace drawing clear in the first turn, began to tire and was finished early.
